

Tonight's TGIF will be Rescheduled

Due to the rain, tonight's TGIF with Stone Canyon will have to be rescheduled. We will notify you when we have a confirmed reschedule date. The Visitor Center, located at 54 W. Church St, will still be having their open house from 5pm-7pm. Please stop by!

Tomorrow there will be an Apple Dish Contest at the Uptown Farmers' Market. No early registration or entry fee required. Simply show up by 7:30am with your entry and a 3X5 card with the following information: Cook's name, phone number, Dish name, and category you wish to enter. There are three categories to choose from ~ Baked apple pie, Fried apple pie, and Miscellaneous Apple. First and Second place winners will be announced in each category. Judging will begin at 8am. One simple rule ~ Apples used in the dishes must be locally grown. Contact Dean Cline, Farmers' Market Manager, for more details, 276-957-5169.

Reminder of the Oktoberfest ~ Saturday, October 1st from 11am-4pm. For those who are not familiar, the Oktoberfest is a street fair along Church and Main Streets in Uptown Martinsville. This is a free event. There will be a German band and dancers, various other musical acts, carnival foods, kids' activities, various crafts, unique art, a beer garden, a petting zoo and much, much more! There are over 150 booths reserved! It is going to be huge! Please tell all of your friends and families! For more information, please contact 276-632-5688.
