Uptown Tree Lighting & Holiday Open House 2011

Don't miss the Uptown Tree Lighting in front of the Historic Courthouse on Friday, December 2nd at 5:30pm. First Presbyterian Church's youth choir, the W.A.M. singers, will be singing Christmas songs from their upcoming play. W.A.M. stands for Worship, Arts & Music. Daily Grind will be on site with hot beverages for sale.

After the Tree Lighting, grab some dinner at one of our many delicious restaurants, then head down to Rives Theatre for the 5th Annual Jingle Bell Jamboree. Join Doug & Telisha Williams and their guest Jay Clark for a night of fun and festivities. Tickets are only $10, proceeds benefit the Martinsville-Henry County SPCA. Doors open at 6:30pm, show begins at 8:00pm.

On Saturday, you will want to head back Uptown for the Holiday Open House from 10am-4pm. If you skipped out on Black Friday, didn't make it to Small Business Saturday, and couldn't find what you wanted on Cyber Monday, then this is your next chance for some great holiday deals and gift ideas. Many of our merchants will be participating with holiday specials, wonderful sales, drawings to enter, and tasty refreshments to nibble. Check out the list below and see where you want to start your shopping fun!
